

The Final Planning + Coordinating Experience

Who is this for?

This service is designed for couples who have planned most of their wedding but want professional guidance to pull everything together in the final stages.

I step in during the final stages to manage details, coordinate logistics, and ensure everything flows beautifully so you can relax and be fully present.

What's Included?

Planning + Preparation

- A custom wedding planning checklist to guide final steps
- Ongoing email support for questions and coordination needs
- Vendor recommendations upon request
- Venue visit and planning meeting prior to the wedding day, if requested
- Custom reception layout design

Timeline + Coordination

- Detailed wedding day timeline created and shared with vendors
- Vendor communication and final confirmations related to the wedding day timeline and logistics
- Ceremony rehearsal coordination, if needed

Wedding Day Management

- On-site wedding day coordination, up to 8 hours
- Ceremony direction and management
- Reception flow and transition management
- Oversight of personal items and details (placement guidance and end-of-night collection)
- Vendor arrival, set up coordination, and gratuity distribution
- Marriage License notarization

The Experience

This service allows you to enjoy your wedding day with confidence and calm, knowing the logistics are handled thoughtfully and professionally from the rehearsal to the final moments of your celebration.

A Seamless Option

Couples who book florals with Once Upon A Bloom enjoy a beautifully cohesive experience with one creative vision guiding both design and coordinating.

The Investment

Final Planning + Coordination beings at $2,250. Bundle pricing available when booking florals and/or catering. Pricing may vary based on overall wedding complexity.
