  - c. I want to be involved in big decisions not details
7. What would stress you out the most?
  - a. The wedding day itself
  - b. Making sure everything comes together correctly
  - c. Managing all the details leading up to the wedding
8. On your wedding day, you want to feel:
  - a. Relaxed knowing everything is handled
  - b. Confident and supported
  - c. Completely stress-free and fully present

Your Result

- Mostly A's - Final Planning
- Mostly B's - Partial Planning
- Mostly C's - Full Planning

Mostly A's - Final Planning + Coordinating

You've done most of the planning and just need a professional to step in and bring everything together

Mostly B's - Partial Planning

You want guidance, structure, and support throughout the process while still being involved in your wedding

Mostly C's - Full Planning

You want a fully supported experience with someone guiding the process and managing the details from start to finish

Not sure if this feels like the perfect fit? I'm always happy to talk through your plans and help you choose the level of support that works best for you.

No matter which level you choose, every wedding I take on is approached with intention, care, and a focus on creating a calm, seamless experience.
