

The Partial Planning Experience

Who is this for?

This service is designed for couples who want hands-on guidance throughout the planning process while still being actively involved in the decisions that matter most.

Think of this as collaborative planning support with professional structure, organization, and oversight so you feel confident, supported, and on track from booking through your wedding day.

What's Included?

Planning Support

- A custom wedding planning checklist with monthly check-ins to keep you on track throughout the planning process
- Ongoing email support for questions, guidance, and coordination needs
- Style and design guidance to bring your vision together
- Vendor recommendations, availability checks, and contract review upon request
- One venue visit with planning guidance based on your vision
- Shared budget and payment schedule template to help you stay organized

Timeline + Coordination

- Timeline planning and ongoing management
- Custom wedding day timeline created and shared with vendors
- Vendor communication and coordination related to the wedding day timeline and logistics
- A final venue walkthrough to confirm layout and flow, followed by a reception layout shared with your vendor team

Wedding Day Management

- Ceremony rehearsal coordination
- On-site wedding day coordination
- Ceremony direction and management
- Reception flow and transition management
- Oversight of personal items and details (placement guidance and end-of-night collection)
- Vendor arrival, set up coordination, and gratuity distribution
- Marriage License notarization

The Experience

Partial Planning offers the perfect balance of support and independence. You'll have professional guidance when you need it and space when you don't. You'll have a calm, organized presence ensuring everything comes together seamlessly on your wedding day.

A Seamless Option

Couples who book florals with Once Upon A Bloom enjoy a beautifully cohesive experience with one creative vision guiding both design and logistics.

The Investment

Partial Planning begins at $3,250. Bundle pricing available when booking florals and/or catering. Pricing may vary based on guest count, venue requirements, and overall wedding complexity.

